SHOWCASE CONCERT
Friday, November 20, 7 pm
St. Alban’s Episcopal Church
3738 Old Sabino Canyon Road

Pre-Concert Reception at 6:00
Pre-Concert Talk about the Fritts Organ at 6:30
Suggested donation: $10

Members of the Southern Arizona Chapter know that Tucson is home to a number of outstanding organists and outstanding organs. Each fall we celebrate our own in a Showcase Concert.

This year, organists Dennis Grannan, Norene Walters, and Jeffrey Campbell will showcase the colors of the Fritts organ at St. Alban’s Episcopal Church on Friday, November 20, at 7:00. The church is at 3738 Old Sabino Canyon Road, on the west side of Sabino Canyon Road just north of River Road. The evening will also feature the talents of singer Jonathan Kim and trumpeter Conrad Jones.

Come early to enjoy a pre-concert reception at 6:00 and a brief talk about the organ by St. Alban’s Music Director Steve Keyl at 6:30.

SAAGO Dean Dennis Grannan, Associate Music Director and Principal Organist of Catalina United Methodist Church, will open the program with music of the Baroque and late Renaissance: J. S. Bach’s Praeludium in G Major (BWV 568), Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck’s Variations on “Mein junges Leben hat ein End,” the Kyrie from an organ mass by Girolamo Cavazzoni with phrases alternately played on the organ and chanted by Cantor Woosug Kang, a Renaissance dance, and the Toccata in D minor by Dietrich Buxtehude (BuxWV155).

Cheers to so many of our members for participating in our recent SAAGO events!

The Roy Johnson Memorial Concert was indeed a celebration! It was extraordinary to have so many people come together to honor and perform for such a beloved man. It was probably the best AGO chapter event that I have ever had the pleasure of being a part of. Thank you to so many of you for participating in this very special concert!

Last weekend, SAAGO sponsored a pipe organ crawl, "Hitting the Organ Trail Once Again". Visits were made to hear, play and experience four different instruments. This delightful morning was enthusiastically celebrated with a luncheon at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. We especially thank Kathryn Snodgrass and David Gay for their work in coordinating this opportunity for our members to experience four unique organs.

Unfortunately, I was not able to attend the "Organ Trail" event last Saturday. The Catalina Choir had their fall retreat that was held at The Holy Trinity Monastery in St. David. I live nearby the monastery so I have been there quite a few times. However, this day was different. I was able to see this tranquil place through the eyes of my friends, many who had never been there before. Our SAAGO executive board has planned for our members to visit the monastery this spring. So I am most excited to be able to experience the lovely grounds, surroundings, architecture, ponds and nature with many of you. Please reserve Saturday, May 21, for a day-trip to St. David. After your time at the monastery, all are welcome to our home overlooking the Dragoon Mountain Range for margaritas and lunch!

I hope to see you at our next SAAGO event, The Annual Showcase Concert, Friday evening, November 20th beginning with a pre-reception at 6 p.m. at St. Alban's Episcopal Church.

Warmest regards,

Dennis

See page 8 for photos from the Roy Johnson Memorial program.
Next, Norene Walters, most recently Director of Music and Organist at Our Savior’s Lutheran Church, will perform J. S. Bach’s Prelude in G Major (BWV 541), the same composer’s Adagio in A minor (BWV 564), the movement “Wach auf, mein Hort” from Paul Hindemith’s third Organ Sonata, and “Le Jardin suspendu” by Jehan Alain.

Concluding the evening is Jeffrey Campbell, Associate Music Director and Principal Organist at St. Philip’s In the Hills Episcopal Church, who will perform Bach’s Concerto in A minor after Vivaldi and will join forces with Conrad Jones, Principal Trumpet of the Tucson Symphony, in the Suite in D Major by Jeremiah Clarke, which includes the famous “Prince of Denmark” march.

In its specification, decoration, and details of construction, the Paul Fritts organ at St. Alban’s Episcopal Church is inspired by the great northern European organs of the 17th and 18th centuries. Its 22 stops on two manuals and pedal feature a beautifully balanced principal chorus, a wealth of flute color, three reed stops, and three 16’ voices. It is a perfect match for the acoustics of the church. Two string stops extend its capabilities surprisingly into the 19th and 20th centuries, as the repertory of the Showcase concert will demonstrate. It is the first mechanical action organ of significant size in southern Arizona. Don’t miss this evening of splendid music played on a special organ by your SAAGO friends and colleagues!

Organ Scholar, St. Philip’s in the Hills
Kwesi Pasley has been appointed organ scholar for 2015-2016 season. A senior in Fox School of Music at the U of A, he is majoring in organ performance. He and Woosug Kang met when Woosug taught at the U of A for a semester during Dr. Pamela Decker’s sabbatical leave.
Working closely with the director of music, the organ scholar’s role is focused on learning traditional liturgy and accompanying the choir for Choral Evensong.

Just a reminder: Scholarship funds are available through the Southern Arizona Chapter for organ study at a variety of levels. Check our website for guidelines.

HITTING THE ORGAN TRAIL: THE STORY

Saturday, October 17, twelve members of the SAAGO and eight friends hosted, played, organized, drove, and listened as part of a "crawl" to four of Tucson's great (but mostly unknown) pipe organs.

- Moller at Dove of Peace;
- Wendhack, Redeker, & Kreuzer at St. Odilia's;
- Gress-Miles at Faith Lutheran;
- Schoenstein at St. Andrew's Episcopal.

All were installed since 1970. Three were under 10 ranks. Each instrument told a unique story. The Moller amazed participants by filling Dove of Peace's large sanctuary space. The St. Odilia organ is from Munich and is one of only three in the USA. Faith's Gress-Miles is the only one in the southwest from the builder; it has no expression pedal, no crescendo pedal, no couplers, and no pistons. St. Andrew's also has no couplers or pistons but has the best church acoustics in the city. All were thrilling to play and hear.

Recipients received copies of The Lutheran Organ, The Catholic Organ, and The Anglican Organ from TAO; and a copy of Holy Modern featuring the first three of the day's churches in a book showcasing Tucson churches built since WWII in the modern style. At the end we had a light lunch together. We had a wonderful time.

In Memoriam

Kristopher Erik Lindquist

Kristopher passed away suddenly October 11, 2015, at the age of 62. He was known to the Tucson organ and choral community when he served as Director of Music and Organist at Grace St. Paul’s Episcopal Church for several years. Holding a BA in music from ASU, where he studied organ with David N. Johnson, he pursued graduate studies in theology and liturgy at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, Berkeley, CA. He held various positions as organist and choir director in Arizona and California. A composer, he wrote songs and chants for liturgical use, some of which became the centerpiece of the ground breaking Mass for the Third Millennium (M3M) service. His music is now in use in churches throughout the U.S. Both printed and recorded versions of Chants for Meditation and Celebration are available through links at kelmusic.com.

A service of remembrance and celebration featuring his music will be held at Grace St. Paul’s on Thursday, November 12 at 5:30 p.m. The service will be conducted in the style of the Mass for the Third Millennium (M3M).

Donald Nieukirk (1931-2015)

Don, a businessman and a church organist by avocation for 57 years, joined our chapter last year after moving to Tucson from Peoria, Illinois. Active in the AGO in Peoria, he participated in the design and specifications for a new pipe organ for the Tremont United Methodist Church in Peoria, which was installed in 1965. Here, he was a frequent attendee at organ programs and particularly enjoyed the Catalina Organ Festival Series.

Marilyn Rinehart’s organ and choral library—additional scores available.

Many of you were the recipients of free organ and vocal music from the late Marilyn Rinehart’s collection. An additional list of titles will be sent to the AGO distribution list shortly. If you would like any of it, or if you have any questions, please contact Fern Hieb (barryfern@cox.net or 520-321-4080). The music is all free.

Marilyn was organist at First Methodist Church for 18 years, organist at Catalina Methodist for seven years and she composed and published organ and choral works.

Pamela Decker & Friends: Solo and Ensemble Works to Celebrate the King of Instruments

Featuring UA Faculty Artist Pamela Decker with Guest Artists
Joel Pierce & Sophie Johnson Martinez

Sunday, April 24, 2016
Holsclaw Hall, 7:00 p.m.
Free Admission

The program will include performances by Dr. Pamela Decker, professor of organ and music theory at the Fred Fox School of Music, along with guest artists Sophie Johnson Martinez and Joel Pierce.

Dr. Decker and Ms. Johnson Martinez will present the premiere performance of a new organ duo by Pamela Decker.

Works from various periods and countries will pay tribute to the power, color and variety of the pipe organ.
Dear AGO friends,

It is hard to express how touched I am by the efforts of all who worked so diligently to create the stunning concert in memory and celebration of Roy’s life. My family and I express our deepest gratitude to you all—Dennis and Woosug, Chelsea Chen and Renée Anne Louprette, Pamela Decker, Kathryn Snodgrass, John Brobeck, the amazing choir, the accompanists (Lynn Moser, Raymond Ryder and David Wachter) the directors (Woosug and Jonathan Kim), Bruce Anderson, Neil West, Joyce Swinehart, Anne and Steve Keyl, members of the Executive Committee and all who played a part in creating a program that will last long in the memories of those who were fortunate enough to be there. Very special thanks to Michael Quimby, President, Quimby Pipe Organs, for his support in making this extraordinary program happen.

Many people requested copies of my daughter Jennifer’s poem, Angel Musicians, which she wrote on the 2nd anniversary of finding Roy’s body in a desert wash far west of the city so I’m including it here. Many people also requested a copy of Roy’s “list” so I’m also including a copy on page 8. The list says something about Roy, I think. Although he performed a lot of newly composed, more contemporary works—many with Gary Cook, percussionist—these pieces must reveal a lot about his heart.

Thank you all for your generosity of spirit and caring.
Dusty Johnson—Roy’s other half.

Angel Musicians

Angel musicians gather round the dying saint their mournful instruments accompany the spirit’s birth into new life

Jubal depresses worn ivory keys stained yellow by the professor’s decaying fingers

The organ swells in sacred might as God blows grief into speckled nickel pipes

Pedals resonate with somber sound as lithe feet depress the lachrymose ground

Azriel drapes black velvet wings over the silver chariot shrouding the musician from prying eyes

Uriel plays a funeral dirge as the hearse travels through drear night to the edge of the city and the end of life

The musicians shout out distress in an eloquent crescendo denouncing brutal, mindless destruction

The musician’s chest heaves valiantly In its struggle for last breath until with a last gasp the body lies still

The requiem is finis the angel musicians cease to play and begin to weep instead

They lay down silenced instruments profaned by homicidal rage and escort the departed soul to heaven’s welcome stage

In memory of Roy Andrew Johnson, Jr.

Jennifer Johnson Barkley March 4, 1997

Note from Renée Anne Louprette—It was a tremendous honor to participate in the Roy Andrew Johnson Memorial Concert in Tucson, Arizona this past Saturday. Roy’s legacy is far-reaching and long-lasting!
New Chapter Website  www.saago.org

Be sure to make use of the new chapter website if you haven't already done so. It provides a wealth of information, including current programs. You can always check for program, date, time and location.

You can view it on a Smartphone or tablet as well as on your desktop or laptop computer—great flexibility for those on the go, and a must for any website intended to attract younger users. Our web designer is Michael Fan, a well-known Tucson violinist as well as a web expert. Steve Keyl is maintaining the site from day to day, and questions can be addressed to him at skeyl@cox.net. The old site (agosaz.com) is no longer active.

A new feature is the Events area. It shows up on the right side of the home page as a list of upcoming organ-related events in southern Arizona, both those sponsored by the Chapter and those that have been made known to us by other organizations. Hovering over any of the events will give you a thumbnail with basic information, and you can click on the event for fuller details and a link to the sponsoring organization. For a complete list of the season's events, click on "Events" on the menu bar at the top of any page. You might be amazed at the richness, diversity, and sheer number of the concerts, special services, and educational opportunities for organists and organ enthusiasts in southern Arizona. The new SAAGO website is the one place to go for information about all of it!

The Roy A. Johnson Memorial Organ Series, established in memory of Professor Johnson following his tragic death in 1995, showcases outstanding contemporary organists. Professor Johnson made enormous contributions to the organ studies program, the keyboard area, and to graduate studies during his 29 years at the University of Arizona. The installation of the beautiful Schoenstein organ given by Isabelle Harris, in a hall designed for the organ, was the fulfillment of his vision for a flourishing organ program.
